RELIGIOUS PROPERTY BROKERAGE

Dear Spiritual Leaders and Staff!

Please accept our invitation to join the PraiseBuildings Lunch & Learn on May 17th – our 3rd annual luncheon seminar for church leaders and their teams to enjoy buffet lunch and a short afternoon of education.

As some of you may recall, our event in October was pre-empted by Hurricane Joaquin, and we hope that all of our previously-registered guests will join us for a reprise on May 17th.

For our prior events, the keynote speakers have been attorneys Midgett Parker and Erika Cole. This year, we've mixed it up a bit with a power-packed double-header: local church architect Ravi Waldon, and, flying in from North Carolina to speak to our honored guests, Erik Ely of Generis. If you don't know Generis, check out their website (Generis.com). At the time of this writing, Generis has helped over 3,100 organizations raise $6,045,985,093. There is nothing more vital to ministry and vision than the ability to foster a culture of generosity and giving. That is why we expect Erik's talk to be a smash hit for our guests next month.

Seats for lunch are limited by the size of our venue, so please RSVP early to ensure spaces for you and your team. We can't wait to see you again this year! Join us May 17th for great speakers and a delicious Famous Dave's barbeque buffet.

Yours very truly,
The PraiseBuildings Team

Guest Speakers

Erik Ely

Generosity strategist Erik Ely has a passion for churches who want to impact their communities. Says Erik, "Nothing is more satisfying than seeing a community catching the fire of generosity and watching the ministry take off!" To that end, Erik works with his church clients to create a customized plan that honors each church's distinct story and helps them reach their God-given potential and vision. Erik joins our seminar to share his expertise in giving and to help convey the importance of a culture of generosity so we can all bring that "fire" to our fundraising efforts.

Ravi Waldon

Architect Ravi Waldon has been lending his breadth of knowledge to local and national clients for many years. Having, himself, been a church elder, trustee, and Sunday school teacher, Ravi has a solid understanding of ministry, enabling him to give church clients exactly what they need with their important church building and renovation projects.
